

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

NICHOLAS L. REICH d/b/a
REICH'S ROADHOUSE LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

AUTO-OWNERS INSURANCE COMPANY,

Defendant.

OPINION AND ORDER

19-cv-763-wmc

As discussed at oral argument earlier today, the court orders the parties to accomplish the following:

1. Plaintiff is to provide a short statement identifying a basis for coverage under the policy for losses of money and security other than the separate endorsement by tomorrow, December 11, 2020, and defendant may have until December 15, 2020, to respond;
2. On or before December 24, 2020, plaintiff is to provide an affidavit from Nicholas Reich regarding what documents he has produced to Owners, and affirming that he has produced all the relevant documents in his possession and control, including those requested documents to which he is entitled from third-party vendors, credit card companies and agents (real estate or otherwise);
3. Within that same timeframe, plaintiff shall formally supplement his written responses to any previous document requests by defendant as may be necessary and arrange prompt production of any additional documents; and

4. Before December 17, 2020, defendant is to issue subpoenas to parties likely to be in possession of documents related to past real estate appraisals and listings for Building #1 at issue. Within seven days of plaintiff's supplemental production, defendant shall also follow-up with subpoenas on third-parties who may still be in possession of relevant information.

Any discovery disputes that arise are to be brought promptly to this court's attention. Finally, the parties or party-representative and their counsel are to appear at a videoconference status hearing before this court on January 14, 2020, at 3:00 p.m.

Entered this 10th day of December, 2020.
